Programme: Please see attached for the programme rundown.

Scope: Speakers are invited to share their views on:-

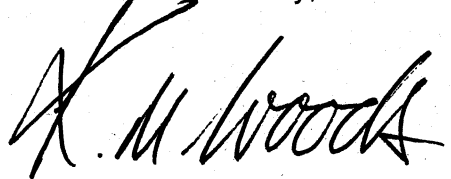

1. The perceived effectiveness of the HK Police in managing and responding to the community expectations;
2. Suggestions on how the HK Police might seek greater engagement of the newly emerging groups within the community; and
3. Suggestions on how the HK Police can achieve broader community support.

Language: Cantonese with English simultaneous interpretation

Acting Senior Superintendent Samson CHO of the Police College is the coordinator of this event. He will provide you with more updated information closer to the date to facilitate your preparation and make arrangements for the talk. His telephone number is 2860 4172.

Once again, I thank you for your kind assistance and look forward to meeting you next month.

Yours sincerely,
